Vad Péter Zsigmond

The musical score consists of three systems of music. The top system starts with the soprano line, followed by the alto and bass lines. The middle system continues with the soprano, alto, and bass lines. The bottom system begins with the soprano line. The piano accompaniment is indicated by a treble clef and bass clef with a common time signature. The vocal parts are in common time. The lyrics are written below the notes in a two-line staff system.
